The Riverina Winemakers Association would like to thank their sponsors who have stood by them during this year and acknowledge that the local wine show would not be a success without their support.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

Our Wine Show Committee, through hard work and tenacity, safely and efficiently continued a 45-year legacy, and hosted our annual wine show, leading the way as one of the first major wine shows in the country to proceed.

Even during this tough year with the impact of drought, bushfires and covid, impacting the industry, the show still received a similar amount of entries and ran three panels over 2.5 days.

The show, which requires almost an entire year of planning by the committee, continually adapted and re-organised their plans month by month, then week by week as the border closures came into effect.

With many wine shows being cancelled and postponed, we were steadfast and patient in making our decision to continue, knowing it could all still be turned upside down any day. It paid off, however, the next challenge was being the first one to proceed in uncharted territory.

We had no one to reference when it came to managing a show under these conditions, our primary focus was to ensure we took our duty of care to the community very seriously and we ran every element of our show under the highest safety standards we could think of. It added a lot more time and cost to the event but we didn't want to have any regrets. I'm very proud of everyone involved who respected and enforced these measures for the reputation of the show and the committee.

For our awards dinner, we could have hosted an event under the restriction guidelines but it would have not been very fun to attend an awards ceremony where you can't get up from your table to collect your trophy or mingle with your peers and celebrate your success.

Instead, we reached out to our winners to film themselves acknowledging their trophy and email it to us. Everyone participated which was wonderful to see and hear from the people behind the wines. Paul Barlow did an amazing job of piecing it all together into a 45 minute video and we screened it for the first time on riverinawinemakers.com.au at 4 pm Friday 18th September. The link to watch the video can be accessed via the website.

Thank you to our sponsors for their unwavering support and to everyone in the 'Acknowledgements' section (next page) who helped make the show a success.

CHAIR REPORT

A wine show in the time of Covid-19 is not an easy feat to pull off, but the 2020 Riverina Show was a great success - thanks to its many tireless organisers. The trust extended from Griffith and the committee was much appreciated, as was the strong number of entries this year.

The back of house crew put in a herculean effort – Carrah Lymer and Chief Stewards Russell Cody and John Coghlan ran a tight team of switched on stewards. And Carrah's mum Rhonda delivered daily lunches (individually packed), fueling the judges and stewards on.

Logistically running six shows at the same time can cause headaches. But thanks to the AWRI and their Show Runner team led by Francesca, we had continual online support.

The judging panel was a brilliant mix of both local, NSW and ACT winemakers, retail buyers and a sommelier. Quite a few stepped up to the plate with only short notice, but this didn't dampen their lively and respectful discussions.

Particular strengths this year were Tumbarumba chardonnay and pinot, Hilltops cabernet, other varietals in the Open Show and Italian varietals. Local stickies were a highlight too.

Once again, our nightly dinners were exceptional. Limone and Zecca welcomed us back, showcasing the excellent quality of the hospitality, cooking and the outstanding local produce.

Thank you again for the opportunity to lead the team this year. Everyone went above and beyond to make this another great chapter in the Riverina Wine Show. I look forward to chairing this show for my final year in 2021.

OPEN SHOW

The Riverina is the country's largest wine producer, accounting in NSW for 60% of the state's production. Uniquely and proudly, five family-owned businesses are essentially responsible for driving the region's engine-room, supplying one in every four glasses of Australian wine.

As a result, over time, these producers have been compelled to draw from well beyond the Riverina to meet demands for the considerable volumes of consistent quality wine they produce, to compete at key price points in both domestic and overseas markets.

Likewise, the Riverina Wine Show has expanded concurrently to reflect this reality, acknowledging the wider resources required by inviting large companies beyond the region to participate in the Riverina's national competition, which has formed basis of the Riverina Wine Show, now in its 45th year.

LEGEND

2020 Legends Award Winners - Jim & Keith McWilliam

These two men have worked over 90 local vintages between them and have been involved in the local wine industry most of their lives. Jim's first vintage was 1942 and Keith's 1944.

Keith was the president of the Riverina Winemakers Association (formerly known as the MIA Winemakers Association) for several years. After the Co-op winery at Beelbangera failed, the winery was taken over by McWilliams and developed into production again under Keith's management.

Keith helped in the development of the large Stainless Steel red fermenters that produced premium red table wines for many years, before operations ceased at Beelbangera. Keith's Vintage Ports soon became wine show highlights. He was also chairman of the family company for several years.

Jim McWilliam took over the management of the Yenda winery from his father Doug. Yenda became the main blending cellar for the company and was the first local winery to establish bottled sparkling wine production.

Jim was responsible for all the sparkling wines made at Yenda. He was also the main distiller of the brandy that the company made and aged at Yenda. He was the Production director following on from his uncle Glen McWilliam.

Their winemaking expertise, along with the engineering expertise of Glen McWilliam, saw the company win the most successful exhibitor in the Royal Sydney wine show for over 20 years.

AUSTRALIAN ITALIAN VARIETIES

Created in 2016 to focus specifically on the development of Australian wines from Italian varieties. The awards have a natural link with the Riverina, as the region's agricultural foundations were underpinned by the strong Italian migrant population, right back to the early 1900s.
