CHAIR REPORT

As we gathered once again at Yenda Hall for the Riverina Wine Show we were welcomed by friendly locals. It was great to be back.

The back-of-house crew were once again a dynamic force – Chief Steward John Coughlan ran a tight team of stewards. The volunteers don't go unnoticed and without them, there would be no show.

Logistically running five shows at the same time can cause headaches. Carrah Lymer kept us focused and managed Show Runner with the help of online support from the the AWRI. Her herculean efforts are the backbone of the show.

Representing the judges this year was a mix of a considered and skilful set of both local, NSW, ACT and Victorian winemakers and sommeliers. A special thanks to the Panel Chairs Adrian Sparks, Stu Knox and Andrew Higgins.

Strengths this year played to some interesting Italian varieties in the Riverina show including vermentino, trebbiano and fiano. For reds, the road less travelled varieties showed well; a vibrant tempranillo and a nero d'avola were standouts. These wines showed they adapted well to challenging environmental conditions, maintaining freshness and energy. The battle of the Durif Class was real. Local stickies and the Open Fortifieds were a highlight too.

One of Griffith's best features is food. We were welcomed by the Piccolo family to their beautiful farm where we feasted on Luke's wood-fired oven extensive meal, most of which came from their garden. For our other night out, steaks and local wines were enjoyed at Bull and Bell. Rhonda, Carrah's mum kept us primed for judging with delicious lunches.

The one and only Russell Cody made an appearance for the Salami Showdown which had the most entries ever. Congratulations to Sam from Yarran for taking the honours, there were some serious contenders.

Thank you for the opportunity to lead the team this year. This was my final year as Chair and I've enjoyed my annual trips to Griffith. It's a town rich in great people.

BACK TO NORMAL

In 2022, our wine show proceeded for the 47th time without any major interruptions which was a nice change of pace. We had 2.5 days of judging at Yenda Memorial Hall once again, with around 600+ entries across the five shows.

Gabrielle Poy joined us as chair for the fourth and final time this year, with Gwyn Olsen having to step aside for this year as her family expanded. Congratulations to Gwyn and Adam on the birth of their second child.

John Coughlan managed the daily running of the show for the second year as Head Steward, with a great group of stewards supporting us once again. John started off the show by having one of the hall heaters almost catch on fire, luckily it didn't but it did provide chilly conditions in the hall for our judges.

Thanks to the judges for joining us once again, and welcome to the new faces as well. We greatly appreciate your enthusiasm and dedication to our show. We enjoyed an intimate dinner at Luke Piccolo's beautiful new cellar door on his family's farm on the first night, with our Italian theme being Campania wines. The second night, the Bull & Bell Steakhouse was our local produce and wines night.

The show invested in new equipment this year, purchasing a new glass washer, and a glass polisher (which we all love!). We've not bought any major equipment for a long time so it was a treat to have this year.

The Salami Showdown doubled in entries this year with six local salamis judged, Sam Brewer from Yarran Wines taking out the top gong this year. Special thanks Rhonda for making delicious and nourishing meals each year, and to Georgina for coming on board this year to support me with behind the scenes work and ensuring everything runs smoothly.

Finally, after the months of putting the show together it is nice to be able to celebrate it with our local industry. Thank you to everyone who joined us for our Black Tie Awards Dinner, it was a fun event and a great way to cap off another show season.

OPEN SHOW

The Riverina is the country's largest wine producer, accounting in NSW for 60% of the state's production. Uniquely and proudly, five family-owned businesses are essentially responsible for driving the region's engine-room, supplying one in every four glasses of Australian wine.

As a result, over time, these producers have been compelled to draw from well beyond the Riverina to meet demands for the considerable volumes of consistent quality wine they produce, to compete at key price points in both domestic and overseas markets.

Likewise, the Riverina Wine Show has expanded concurrently to reflect this reality, acknowledging the wider resources required by inviting large companies beyond the region to participate in the Riverina's national competition, which has formed basis of the Riverina Wine Show, now in its 47th year.

LEGEND

2022 Riverina Legend - Bruno Brombal

Bruno Brombal has been involved in industry representative roles within the winegrape industry almost his entire working life. He currently owns and operates with his family three vineyards producing approx. 3,000 tonnes annually along with fresh and juice citrus, prunes, stone fruits and vegetables.

In 1979 Bruno commenced his representative roles as a foundation member of the Hanwood Grape Growers Association, thereafter he was elected to the NSW Statutory Authority, Wine Grapes Marketing Board in 1989. He has remained as the Chair of this organisation since 1998 and an executive member of the NSW Wine Industry Association until resigning early 2019.

1983 Bruno along with other growers in the region formed the MIA Vine Improvement Society. 1984 Bruno and Leo DePaoli started a business Hanwood Grafted Vines, the only vine grafting business in region producing vine material at that time. In the early 2000's Bruno took on the role of Chair of National growers body, Winegrape Growers Council of Australia and was involved in the selection panel for the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation (now known as Wine Australia). Bruno is a foundation member of the 2018 formed Inland Wine Regions Alliance - representing the major inland wine regions of Riverina, Riverland and Murray Valley.

Bruno maintained a functional and working relationship with wineries and their representative in the Riverina. Assisted growers emotionally during of the oversupply period in the mid 2000's. Awarded Riverina Farmer of the Year in 2000 under the Riverina Naturally brand for excellence in viticulture. Stood as the only grower representative on the NSW Ministerial Wine Industry Council. Elected to the Board of Murrumbidgee Irrigation in 2007 and as Deputy Chair in 2009 resigning in 2013. Winegrape Grower representative member on the Murrumbidgee Horticultural Council.

AUSTRALIAN ITALIAN VARIETIES

Created in 2016 to focus specifically on the development of Australian wines from Italian varieties. The awards have a natural link with the Riverina, as the region's agricultural foundations were underpinned by the strong Italian migrant population, right back to the early 1900s.

TUMBARUMBA

Designed to support and champion the excellence of the smaller growers and winemakers within the neighbouring Tumbarumba GI who not only produce their own boutique labels, but make an important contribution to the greater Riverina by supplying significant quantities of cool climate fruit.

This development is a natural progression that seeks to acknowledge and celebrate the partnership of these distinct yet interdependent regions and their respective strengths
