CHAIR REPORT

This year the judging team excitedly converged on Yenda Hall eager to see what the week, and the five individual wine shows, had in store for us. The out of region judges were warmly welcomed by the friendly faces of Carrah Lymer and Russell Cody and we were all thrilled to be there. Regional wine shows are run by dedicated and energetic volunteers and this one is no exception. A huge thank you to Carrah Lymer, Russell Cody and all the stewards, glass washers and general helping hands who were a force to be reckoned with. A seamless back of house effort over five individual wine shows is no small feat and everyone should be commended for their effort and hard work over the course of the week. I have never experienced a trophy judging day as smooth as this year!

A heartfelt thanks to the amazing team of judges who took time out of their personal and professional lives to join our judging team. The panel chairs of Stu Knox (Fix St James and The Real Review), Andrew Higgins (Tamburlaine) and Aaron Mercer (Mercer Wines) lead a dedicated team of winemakers, sommeliers and wine buyers through 602 total entries. There were many standouts across the week and it was thrilling to see a serious lift in quality from both a vineyard and winemaking interface across the wines. The judging team was very impressed with the Riverina Wine Show and the expressive and complex wines that were proud and nuanced examples of what this great region can do. Cabernet and friends, along with shiraz and durif were all highlights as was pinot gris, sauvignon blanc and one moscato that really tickled the judges. It was thrilling to see the lift in these wines, and the region should be very proud of the advancements made here. In the Italian Varietals Show, the nebbiolo, fiano and vermentino all showed well and again, great to see such a wonderfully diverse wines on the bench. The Sweet Wine Challenge was a hard fought battle with the two final wines battling out for a trophy separated by just one vote. In the Tumbarumba Wine Show, the highlights were the wine wines with the chardonnay and sauvignon blanc showing brilliance. Unfortunately a couple of tough seasons for the reds resulted in no trophy for pinot noir or shiraz.

The hospitality of the week was lovely. Thank you to Carrah and her mum, Rhonda, for keeping us well fed during the day. We enjoyed two local restaurants of La Scala and Bull & Bell for dinner where the food was impeccable. The week ended on the traditional high note of the local salami judging competition run by the one and only Russell Cody. This year saw a record 15 entries battle it out and the judging and stewarding teams tasted through all 15 blind to determine the winner. A huge congratulations to Nando from Warburn for taking out top honours this year! Special mention to Carmello D'Aquino for placing both second and third with his two different entries.

Thank you for the opportunity to lead this year's team of judges. I am thrilled with the wines that have been awarded and I hope you seek them out to try them – they are delicious and worthy. I look forward to seeing you all again next year.

2023 REPORT

In 2023, our wine show proceed for the 48th time and it really ran quite seamlessly. This is a result of the work we have put in to growing our local talent, and giving them the experience to support the show from starting off as stewards, moving through to associate judging, and then up to judge position. We now have a great group of young, experienced wine show staff who work hard behind the scenes and enjoy the experience under the guidance of our senior winemakers and head stewards.

Gwyn Olsen was back to chair for the second time, the first time being in 2021, having to take the year off in 2022 due to the impending birth of her daughter. Gwyn's enthusiasm and experience ensured another successful show, and her support in choosing our panel chairs, and judges gave us a wonderful crew to work with. The judging was once again at the Yenda Memorial hall and started mid-morning Monday and concluded early afternoon Wednesday. With a couple of hours for the visiting judges to unwind before their flights, we dropped them off at Yarran Wines to enjoy a drink and the views across the vines to the Cocoparra Ranges. Thanks to Sam Brewer for hosting.

Russell Cody managed the daily running of the show as Head Steward and once again oversaw the all important Salami Showdown which had more than doubled in size once again to 15 entries. Congratulations to the Warburn Estate team who cleaned up 1, 2 and 3 spots amongst themselves with Fernando taking out the trophy.

To all our judges, we greatly appreciate your enthusiasm and dedication to our show. Our first dinner was at Bull & Bell Steakhouse, who are very generous with their portions so everyone was more than well fed. The second night we went to La Scala, a local institution which is sadly moving locations later this year, so it was nice to get one last dinner in the iconic space.

Special thanks to Georgie for stepping in and taking over the reigns in the lead up to the show when I couldn't be there, and for also taking on and managing the showrunner system during the judging.

Also, special mention to Tim Cox who was a driving force behind getting our exhibit numbers up for the Tumbarumba wine show. Tim rallied all the local producers to enter and even helped deliver their exhibits to the hall. Thank you Tim!

Finally, after the months of putting the show together it is nice to be able to celebrate it with our local industry, our sponsors and visiting exhibitors. Thank you to everyone who joined us for our Black Tie Awards Dinner at the Whitton Malt House, it was a fun and relaxed event, and a great way to cap off another show season.

OPEN SHOW

The Riverina is the country's largest wine producer, accounting in NSW for 60% of the state's production. Uniquely and proudly, five family-owned businesses are essentially responsible for driving the region's engine-room, supplying one in every four glasses of Australian wine.

As a result, over time, these producers have been compelled to draw from well beyond the Riverina to meet demands for the considerable volumes of consistent quality wine they produce, to compete at key price points in both domestic and overseas markets.

Likewise, the Riverina Wine Show has expanded concurrently to reflect this reality, acknowledging the wider resources required by inviting large companies beyond the region to participate in the Riverina's national competition, which has formed basis of the Riverina Wine Show, now in its 48th year.

AUSTRALIAN ITALIAN VARIETIES

Created in 2016 to focus specifically on the development of Australian wines from Italian varieties. The awards have a natural link with the Riverina, as the region's agricultural foundations were underpinned by the strong Italian migrant population, right back to the early 1900s.
