

Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards 2019 Rules

The Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards has been created by the Riverina Winemakers Association to focus specifically on the development of Australian wines from Italian varieties. The awards have a natural link with the Riverina, as the region's agricultural foundations were underpinned by the strong Italian migrant population, right back to the early 1900s.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards 2019 Rules

The Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards is only open to finished wines i.e. wines that have been bottled during a commercial bottling run with a seal/cork that the consumer will break to consume. THEY NEED NOT necessarily bear a commercial label or be available for sale at the time of judging. Where a finished wine is not commercially labelled, the exhibitor must list on the entry form the commercial brand under which the wine will be sold. Failure to do so may see the wine disqualified. Commercial labels should NOT be removed from exhibits.

1. All classes are open for competition to winemakers and distillers and wine and spirit merchants. A wine merchant shall mean any person, association or company buying wine and brandy for re-sale or wholesale. A winemaker shall mean any person or firm manufacturing wine from grapes.
2. An Exhibitor shall mean the person(s), business or company as designated on the Wine Show entry form and also includes an agent and anyone acting or purporting to be acting on the Exhibitor's behalf, whether or not employed by the Exhibitor.
3. The Committee means the Riverina Wine Show Committee convened under the Riverina Winemakers Association Inc.

16. Wines entered into varietal classes must comprise a minimum 85% of the stated grape variety.

Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards 2019 Rules

17. Wines entered into blended classes must comprise a minimum 85% of Italian variety/varieties, as per Rule 4.

20. The Committee reserves the right to have any exhibit inspected and/or analysed by one or more persons appointed for that purpose.
21. No protest will be entertained unless made within seven (7) days of the announcement of the awards.
22. No entry will be received from any person or persons disqualified by this or any other similar Wine Show Organisation. Should any entry be accepted, it shall, when discovered, be deemed void, and the entry fee and exhibit shall be forfeited.

24. Exhibitors agree that their results can be published in the catalogue of results.
25. Audit of exhibits and use of medals will be undertaken. This may involve establishing minimum stock levels and consistency between exhibits and commercially obtained products. It is a condition of entry that exhibitors will co-operate with auditors acting at the request of the Riverina Wine Show. If requested, exhibitors will provide samples from company warehouses.

TROPHY AND MEDAL ASSESSMENT

26. Trophies will only be awarded where a wine has first won a gold medal in the Show.
27. Judges will judge each Class without collaboration.

30. Awards may be withheld in any Class where exhibits are considered unworthy.

DISPLAY OF AWARDS

31. The Riverina Wine Show adheres to the Winemakers Federation of Australia Code of Practice governing the display of awards. This states that producers will not use medals, stickers, symbols or other devices on a bottle in order to misleadingly convey the impression the wine has received an award at an open, objective and independent competition.

Australian Italian Varieties Wine Awards 2019 Rules

32. Awards received by an individual wine will bear the year of the award and the class description and shall only apply to wines bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered.
33. Compliance by a producer to the WFA's Code of Practice for the display of awards is a prerequisite for entry to the Riverina Wine Show. Any exhibitor making improper use of Awards for Advertising purposes may be disqualified from any future shows.
